

Autumn Newsletter

'A book holds a house
of gold'

CHINESE PROVERB

Hello from the library!

We are thrilled to share with you all that is happening in our vibrant library. Read on to discover book recommendations and to find out about past, current and future events.

We are also excited to announce that we have started some new after-school clubs in the library. They are running alongside homework club. All students are welcome.

Enjoy!

Library Team

EVENTS

At the end of September, the European Day of Languages arrived in the library. Students ate croissants and listened to stories in French, Italian, German and Spanish. Congratulations to Georgia Carr (7LD) and Mia Jarque Garcia (7LD) for winning the quiz. Well done to everyone who participated.

The library is currently celebrating Black History Month. Come along and see what we've got on offer!

In the future...

- Hallowe'en
- Bookbuzz Book Swap
- Remembrance
- The Lost Books of Christmas

RECOMMENDED READS

FICTION

The Dreadwood series is entirely thrilling and suspenseful; it's beautifully written all the way through. The Guardian said it's, 'Deliciously scary and hilariously comedy-horror', and I couldn't agree with them more. It has just enough funny bits to stop it from being too scary, and has characters so relateable it feels like you could reach out and touch them. I thoroughly loved reading these books.

Recommended for Y7+8

Tabitha (Y8)

Recommended for Y8+

"Find Your Voice" by Angie Thomas is an empowering guide for young writers, offering relatable insights and practical tips. Thomas inspires confidence and creativity, encouraging readers to embrace their unique stories. Empowering and heartfelt!

"The Hate U Give" by Angie Thomas powerfully explores themes of race, identity, and activism through Starr's journey after witnessing a police shooting. It's a gripping, essential read that sparks important conversations.

Curriculum Books!

We have some new books in to enhance the learning of your subjects:

NON-FICTION

Drama

English

CLUBS AND CHALLENGES

TUESDAYS 3-3.45

WEDNESDAYS 3-3.45

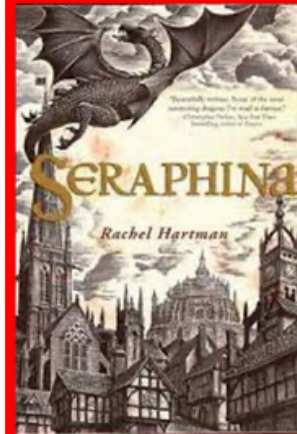

THURSDAYS 3-3.45

FLHS READING CHALLENGE

Dragon Quest

Read the stories
Review the adventures
Receive the treasure

OPENING TIMES

Monday

8.00am-4.00pm Week A

8.00am-2.00pm Week B

Tuesday

8.00am-4.00pm

Wednesday

8.00am-4.00pm

Thursday

8.00am-4.00pm

Friday

8.00am-3.30pm

Thank you for reading!